ZIONISM—CANCER IN WORLD POLITIC

Zionism Is the Most Stupendous Fallacy in Jewish History – Wrong in Principle and Impossible Of Realization – Unsound in Economics, Fantastical in Its Politics and Sterile in Its Spiritual Ideals – – –

HENRY MORGENTHAU, SR.

Some weeks ago, in a sidewalk cafe in Djibouti, I read the airmail editions of Time and Newsweek. Those were the issues which had Israel's Defense Minister Dayan on the covers. Dayan, with his black eyepatch, cut a very romantic figure. The magazines were full of tales of Jewish valor and Arab cowardice. Dayan was hailed as the greatest military genius since Napoleon. Naturally, those of us who understand Jewish press-agentry discounted all of this heavily. The wider public, however, seems to have accepted the legend of Jewish military might. The cold fact is that Israel is a pipsqueak military power. It is only the power of the United States which keeps Israel in existence at all. Dayan proved himself to be a good actor. On yet another day, he will have a chance to prove whether or not he is really a military genius or merely a military quack. This morning, after a trip around the world, I am home again. I am writing on the deck of a yacht off Fort Lauderdale. The softly chirping news ticker in the radio room of the yacht brings the news that the Soviet navy has eight missile ships in Port Said and four more ships in Alexandria. The admiral in command of this Soviet fleet states sourly that this fleet is ready to cooperate with the armed forces of the U.A.R. "in case of further aggression." This should be enough to make the romantic Mr. Dayan swallow his black eyepatch. Those eight missile ships are capable of firing atomic warheads. If they ever let go a single barrage in the direction of Tel Aviv, there would be nothing left of Israel except a hole in the ground. The issues of Time and Newsweek which carried Dayan's picture on the covers were full of assurances that Russia would not do anything much about the Middle East crisis. A Jew-owned London press service said that "Russia has embarked upon a course of maximum noise and minimum actual risk in the Middle East." This has proven to be Jewish wishful thinking. Russia is embarked upon a sharp, fast and deadly campaign to take over that territory and, in this manner, virtually to insure the defeat of the United States in World War III. It has become vital for the American people to understand both Russian and Jewish machinations in the Middle East.

In order to understand the Russian game in the Middle East we must first understand clearly what Russia has become in the last forty years. She has become a classic Asiatic despotism and is, above all else, a military nation. The Russian society today is designed for war, and it wants war. Russia is moving toward World War III with cold-blooded calculation. The men who rule Russia today are in no way influenced by Marxist mythology, although they may use it cynically to influence other people. They were not born yesterday. They know the real truth about the 1917 revolution in Russia. They know about the consortium of New York banks which invested a half-billion dollars in the Russian revolution. They know well the motives of those international bankers. They have documents available to them in the Kremlin to prove the whole story. Bluntly, they know that Marxism is a consummate fraud. Nobody on earth is more cynical about Marxism than the denizens of upper-class Moscow. If you travel in Russia today, you will encounter tourist guides who are trained to prattle Marxist dogma, if they think that you want to hear it. These tourist guides are about the only people left in Russia who seriously concern themselves about Marxism any more. A Russian who really believes in Marxism is regarded as mentally retarded. He is given a job as a dishwasher, or some other simple occupation which will make little demand upon his mind. It is the West, not Russia, which knocks itself out with silly pseudo-controversy polarized between the "right" and the "left." There are no "left" and "right" sides in Russian internal politics today. There is only one side, the Russian side, the cause of holy mother Russia, of Moscow, the third Rome, the messianic city which is destined to invent a new name for God and to rule the whole world for a thousand years. If you are looking for dangerous ideas, you might do well to forget Marxism and try that one on, just for size.

ISRAELI DEFENSE MINISTER

"Zionism is the most stupendous fallacy in Jewish history. I assert that it is wrong in principle and impossible of realization; that it is unsound in economics, fantastical in its politics, and sterile in its spiritual ideas. Where it is not pathetically visionary, it is a cruel playing with the hopes of a people blindly seeking their way out of age-long miseries."

"The proudest boast of these men, and my proudest boast, is: 'I am an American.' None of us would deny our race or faith. We are Jews by blood . . . If I were pressed to define myself by any single appellation, I would unhesitatingly select the one word American."

—By the late HENRY MORGENTHAU, SR. who was appointed by President Wilson to investigate and report on conditions in Palestine after World War I, from: "All in a Lifetime."

Russia is not interested in "spreading Communism" through the Middle East, or anywhere else, for that matter. Russia is not basing her drive for world power on any idea that "the poor" will rise up in revolution and join themselves to Moscow. The men who rule Russia know that the whole legend of "proletarian revolution" is a phoney, a Jew intellectual racket invented in the first place to cover up the depredations of Jewish international bankers. There is no such thing as "proletarian revolution." The poor everywhere are generally under the control of the rich and powerful; the only way a proletarian can get anywhere is to stop being a proletarian, and develop that nobility of character and soul which will give him upward mobility in life. The men who rule Russia today waste no time waiting for the poor and wretched of the earth to arise. They use the classic and conventional military and diplomatic methods which ambitious nations have used since time out of mind. Russia uses the methods of Realpolitik with sure-footed skill. Bluntly, as of now, Russia is winning the rat-race for world power, and the United States is losing it. There is very little time left in which we might reverse this fatal trend. If we do not reverse it soon, we shall be one with Nineveh and Tyre.

Let us now consider the skillful game which Russia is playing in the Middle East: There nobody is concerned much any more with such questions as "Communism" or "Capitalism." The Middle East today is dominated by raw, naked, savage, animal fear. This is what the republic of Israel has brought to the Middle East. The Arab nations are driven by the fear of mass death, by the fear of Israel's genocidal intentions toward them. LBJ likes to talk of "the problem of the Palestine refugees," as if it could be solved by some sort of magic conjured out of his ten-gallon western hat. There is no such easy solution in sight. Israel, by bringing in immigrants from all the world, has upset the demographic balance of the Middle East. The first basic fact about populations is that they multiply. The population of Israel is increasing, and the populations of the Arab nations are increasing. In the conflict between populations, either Arabs or Jews must someday end up being driven into arid desert wastes which will not support them, where they will find relief only in the oblivion of death. Israel means to kill the Arab populations and to occupy their lands. The Arabs, driven by fear of death, react powerfully. They seek the protection of a powerful nation, Russia, to which they will become tributary in return for protection. This sort of thing has been going on since before the dawn of recorded history. It has now already happened before our eyes in the Middle East. For the free world, this is a practically irretrievable disaster. We have lost not only the Middle East but also Western Europe. When Russia has occupied the Midthe Middle East, she will be in a position to work a nearly-irresistible squeeze play against Western Europe.

The issue of Newsweek which featured Dayan on the cover carried one fairly sensible news story. This was an interview with Sir John Baggot Glubb, once the commander and trainer of the famed Arab Legion. "Glubb Pasha," as he was called in those days, knows the valor of which the Arab is capable, when he is well-trained and well-equipped. Glubb pointed out, in the interview published in Newsweek, amidst the chorus of hosannas to the military might of Israel, that if the Arabs are driven into the hands of Russia, and Russia takes over the Middle East, then nobody in Western Europe can afford any longer to be allied to the United States. It is not a matter of preferences or choices. It is a matter of monolithic geopolitical realities which the Europeans will not be able to ignore. When Russia controls the Middle East, the United States will be as completely alone and isolated in the world as Germany was during the first two world wars. We shall not have one single important ally anywhere in the whole world. If you still have this copy of Newsweek around, dig it out and read the wise words of Sir John Baggot Glubb. They were the only words of wisdom printed anywhere in any of the Jew-owned American mass media during the week of "Israel's great victory."

Israel? Bah! When the situation foreseen by Sir John Baggot Glubb has come to pass, Israel will be a tiny enclave surrounded by enemies on every side for a distance of three thousand miles. The really defrauded people are the Jews who have been swindled into moving to Israel, in the hope of finding a "home." What sort of "home" will they find if, for example, the Russian admiral commanding the fleet at Port Said is ordered to loose his missiles against Israel? Within the half a day, he could put the whole of Israel to fire and sword. It will be interesting to see what Dayan will do when that evil day comes. If he is really smart, he will be in New York when this happens.

Can the United States help Israel? Let us imagine that we become involved in a "Vietnam type" war in the Middle East. Our ancient and leaky fleet of merchant ships could not support such a war. Look at your map. Trace the route of a ship sailing from the United States to the Middle East to help Israel. If it sails through the Mediterranean to Israel, it must sail along the long African coast line, which could harbor enemy airfields and submarine bases. The only alternative route lies around the Cape of Good Hope and the Red Sea. The Red Sea is a narrow and vulnerable waterway. Our merchant ships would be sitting ducks. We could not operate them in either the Mediterranean or the Red Sea without first capturing control of the surrounding land masses. Perhaps Israel's "brilliant" defense minister can offer some helpful suggestions. How about it, Mr. Dayan? In order to bail out Israel, we would have to capture the continent of Africa.

Russia is whispering some helpful suggestions to Mr. Dayan's enemies, saying to them, "to be sure, we shall destroy Israel, but first we must destroy the United States. Then we can occupy Israel by long-distance telephone." She is not interested in creating a Nasserite empire, or any kind of Arab empire. Russia is interested in creating a Russian world-empire and moreover, is now within an inch of success. With the Middle East and Western Europe under the domination of Russia, the United States will have no ally in the world except Israel.

We formerly had some friends in the Middle East. Saudi Arabia likes the American oil companies, but does not like our Jew-dominated political administration. The oil company executives are our best "diplomats" in the Middle East. It might be a good idea to hire them to run the State Department on a contract basis. Long ago, when the Republic of Israel was first founded, both the oil companies and the Joint Chiefs of Staff of our military establishment protested to President Truman. They said that the establishment of Israel would jeopardize the nation's military position, and would cause us ultimately to lose the Middle East oil concessions. Now the evil day which the oil men and the military men foresaw has come. The Saudi Arabians like the smooth-running technological efficiency of the American oil companies. They like the "hands off" policy of American oil companies toward domestic Arabian politics. In every way, they are fond of the American oil companies which have made them rich. On the other hand, they know the bottomless greed and cupidity of the Jews. When Jewish troops invaded the old sector of Jerusalem, they ruthlessly drove Arab families from their homes, simply ordered them to leave with whatever they could carry on their backs. King Feisal knows that the Jews would drive him from his palace as quickly and greedily as they drive a poor baggage porter from his hovel. King Feisal knows that he cannot live with the Jews. The Soviet Union is singing a sweet siren song to him: "Come, you need not be satisfied with merely the profits of oil production. You can also get the profits of distribution. Let us band together and form an oil-marketing combine which will drive the American oil companies from world markets. We can undersell them. We can hire management brains, and we can build oil tankers in Japan, and we can build refineries. We can hire architects to build eye-catching gas stations all over Europe and Asia just as well as the Americans can..."

American oil companies may indeed be driven out of world markets by just such a combine. This would be a major economic disaster, and not merely for the oil companies, either. It would shake the American economy to its foundations.

Harry S. Truman said, after he left office, that he had not wanted to support Israel, but had been high-pressured into it by all manner of superheated political pressure. The American Zionists are a totally incorrigible pack of fools and scoundrels, but they are clever, in their low way. The phrase which occurs to me when I meet one of them personally comes from a poem by T. S. Eliot: "One of the low, on whom assurance sits, like a silk hat on a Bradford millionaire..." The ignorant, low-born, and vulgar often have this kind of assurance about them, an assurance born of ignorance. This is the typical attitude of the Zionists. They always have money to spend and they manage to radiate an air of assurance and self-importance. Mostly they are as ignorant as an illiterate bowery bum concerning the potential consequences of their actions. They live in a fog of unreality.

We cannot laugh them off. They have become a major menace to civilization. Nobody loves the Capitalist civilization more than I. From the year 1830 onward, the energetic peoples of Western Europe and America set to work and laced the world with railroads, steamship lines, cables, and later airlines. Travel and commerce became amazingly easy and convenient. I myself have happily reaped a satisfactory share of the benefits of this civilization. It is no small thing to be able to show a credit card, get into a jet airplane, and within a few short hours be strolling on the Ginza in Tokyo, seeing the Adam Smith theory of Capitalism proven once more by the energetic Japanese. Back home again, sailing on a yacht off Fort Lauderdale, and looking at the Florida Gold Coast from the sea, I see plenty of reasons to be thankful. I wish that I could present an easy formula for making this happiness secure. We at Common Sense would like to be bearers of glad tidings. Unhappily, since our business is dealing in truths which the prostituted, Jew-owned mass media like to suppress, we must tell you that the events of the last few months have placed the world Capitalist civilization in grave danger of destruction. The White Gentile majority in America have become second-class citizens in their own country; American policy is being made by Jews, and by the worst kind of Jews at that. Many years ago, there were wise voices in the American Jewish Community which counseled against Zionism. Henry Morgenthau, Sr. said "Speaking as an American, I cannot for a moment concede that one can be at the same time a true American and an honest adherent of the Zionist movement." These honest and wise voices in the American Jewish community were outshouted by a rabble of opportunists who have brought world Jewry to the brink of its greatest disaster.

The ghost of the Prophet Jeremiah walks forever through the streets of Jerusalem. Jeremiah was a true Hebrew, in whom there was no guile. The race which wrote the Old Testament is long since extinct; the phoney Jews who murder Arab children in Jerusalem today never had any ancestors living in ancient Palestine; their ancestors ran naked in the forests of Central Asia and worshipped idols in the days when the Old Testament was written. Nevertheless, they might do well to harken to the words which the Prophet Jeremiah shouted in the streets of Jerusalem: "The Lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl; for the fierce anger of the Lord is not turned back..." It would take the Russian naval wireless station in Leningrad no more than three minutes to send a message to the Russian fleet visiting Port Said, and Jeremiah IV, 8, would be the headline in tomorrow's paper.

The braggarts of Zionism should remember that there are limits to the magic which can be derived from a lucky black eyepatch on a man named Dayan. It may look very romantic on the front cover of Time magazine, but the Jews, who are so adept at promoting phoney reputations, are bound to learn soon that it takes more than press-agentry to make a great military commander. As I write this, the chirping news ticker brings me the news that LBJ is "alarmed" over continued Soviet arms shipments to the Arab nations. A lot of people will be more than "alarmed" before this thing is finished. Dayan had better get himself a dozen more lucky black eyepatches.

The Middle East crisis has exposed us Americans brutally before the whole world for our subservience to the Jews. A reform Rabbi in Los Angeles has complained that the Christian clergy of America have not been sufficiently enthusiastic in their support of Israel. Mind you, he does not accuse any of them of OPPOSING Israel. Apparently not a single Christian clergyman in all America had the guts to stand up and suggest that it might possibly be wrong for the Jews to wipe out the Arabs in a genocidal war of conquest. The Rabbi merely claims that we did not hold enough torchlight parades to celebrate Israel's "great victory," which already is turning to ashes. Apparently we are expected to spend half our time admiring the Jews and exclaiming over their genius, their unbeatable superiority, and other qualities which they fancy themselves to have.

Russia, on the other hand, has demonstrated that she has liberated herself from Jewish rule. To judge by our incoming fan mail, some readers of Common Sense seem to be perplexed about this. Did not the Jews start communism in Russia? How have they lost control of Russia? In recent issues of Common Sense, we have endeavored to explain the importance of the murder of Leon Trotsky and the career of Stalin. Essentially,

FAMOUS U.S. NEGROES SPEAK

ARCHIE MOORE POINTS WAY IN U.S. RACIAL SITUATION

Archie Moore, internationally known Californian and retired light-heavyweight boxing champion of the world, told friends he feels that "everybody must take a stand in this time of internal crisis. A man who stands neutral stands for nothing."

By ARCHIE MOORE

(Reprinted from The San Diego Union)

The devil is at work in America and it is up to us to drive him out. Snipers and looters, white or black, deserve no mercy. Those who would profit from their brother's misfortunes deserve no mercy, and those who would set fellow Americans upon each other deserve no mercy.

I'll fight the man who calls me an "Uncle Tom." I have broken bread with heads of state, chatted with presidents and traveled all over the world. I was born in a ghetto, but I refused to stay there. I am a Negro, and proud to be one. I am also an American, and I'm proud of that.

The young people of today think they have a hard lot. They should have been around in the '30s when I was coming up in St. Louis. We had no way to go, but a lot of us made it. I became light-heavyweight champion of the world. A neighbor kid down the block, Clark Terry, became one of the most famous jazz musicians in the world. There were doctors, lawyers and chiefs who came out of that ghetto. One of the top policemen in St. Louis came from our neighborhood.

We made it because we had a goal, and we were willing to work for it. Don't talk to me of your "guaranteed national income." Any fool knows that this is insanity. Do we bring those who worked to get ahead down to the level of those who never gave a damn? The world owes NOBODY—black or white—a living. God helps the man who helps himself!

Now then, don't get the idea that I didn't grow up hating the injustices of this world. I am a staunch advocate of the Negro revolution for the good of mankind. I've seen almost unbelievable progress made in the last handful of years. Do we want to become wild beasts bent only on revenge, looting and killing and laying America bare? Hate is bait, bait for the simple-minded.

Sure, I despised the whites who cheated me, but I used that feeling to make me push on. If you listen to the professional rabble-rousers, adhere to this idea of giving up everything you've gained in order to revenge yourself for the wrongs that were done to you in the past — then you'd better watch your neighbor, because he'll be looting your house next. Law and order is the only edge we have. No man is an island.

Granted, the Negro still has a long way to go to gain a fair shake with the white man in this country. But believe this: if we resort to lawlessness, the only thing we can hope for is civil war, untold bloodshed, and the end of our dreams.

We have to have a meeting of qualified men of both races. Mind you, I said qualified men, not some punk kid, ranting the catch phrases put in his mouth by some paid hate-monger. There are forces in the world today, forces bent upon the destruction of America, your America and mine. And while we're on the subject, do you doubt for a minute that communism, world communism, isn't waiting with bated breath for the black and white Americans to turn on each other full force? Do you want a chance for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness in the land of your birth, or do you want no chance at all under the Red heel?

There are members of the black community who call for a separate nation within America. Well, I do not intend to give up one square inch of America. I'm not going to be told I must live in a restricted area. Isn't that what we've all been fighting to overcome? And then there is the element that calls for a return to Africa.

Archie Moore Points the Way to Success.

For my part, Africa is a great place to visit, but I wouldn't want to live there. If the Irishmen want to go back to the Emerald Isle, let them. If the Slavs want to return to the Iron Curtain area, OK by me. But I'm not going to go to any part of Africa to live. I'm proud of my ancestry, and of the country that spawned my forefathers, but I'm not giving up my country. I fought all my life to give my children what I'm able to give them today; a chance for development as citizens in the greatest country in the world.

I do not for a moment think that any truly responsible Negro wants anarchy. I don't think you'll find intelligent — no, let's rephrase that — mature Negroes running wild in the streets or sniping at total strangers. God made the white man as well as the black. True, we haven't acted as brothers in the past, but we are brothers. If we're to be so many Cains and Abels, that's our choice. We can't blame God for it.

Something must be done to reach the Negroes and the whites in the ghettos of this country, and I propose to do something.

As a matter of plain fact, I have been doing something for the past several years. I have been running a program which I call the ABC—Any Boy Can. By teaching our youth, black, white, yellow and red, what dignity is, what self respect is, what honor is, I have been able to obliterate juvenile delinquency in several areas.

I would now expand my program, change scope. If any boy can, surely any man can. I want to take teams of qualified people, top men in their fields, to the troubled areas of our cities. I know that the people who participated in the recent riots, who are participating and who will participate, are misguided rather than mad.

If some bigot can misguide, then I can guide. I've spent too much of my life building what I've got to put it to torch just to satisfy some ancient hatred of a man who beat my grandfather. Those men are long dead. Do we have to choke what could be a beautiful garden with weeds of hate? I say NO! And I stand ready to start "Operation Gardener." I invite the respected Negro leaders of our country to join me.

FAMED NEGRO AVIATOR SAYS HE IS ASHAMED

"The Black Eagle of Harlem" criticized American Negroes for acting "like a bunch of uncivilized savages."

Aviator Hubert Julian, who won wealth, renown and his nickname as a stunt pilot in the 1920's, said, "I am ashamed to be a Negro." He announced he plans to move his family out of the United States.

The 68-year-old flier told newsmen that last week's riots in Los Angeles confirmed his decision to leave the country and live somewhere in Europe, Asia or Africa.

"As far as living in the United States is concerned, I can't anymore," Julian said. "The conduct of people who look like me leaves me appalled. I am ashamed to be a Negro. The rioting, raping and arson does not solve any racial problem."

SOUND ADVICE FROM NEGRO ARMY OFFICER, EXECUTIVE

The following is an excerpt from a report first printed in the Albany, Ga., Herald. It was written by a prominent government and military figure, Major Hughes Alonzo Robinson, a Negro, now a retired army officer, educator and industrial executive.

By MAJOR HUGHES A. ROBINSON

The agitation about schools, hotels, motels and public accommodations is a waste of time. You cannot legislate the mind and heart of men. Individualism must not be permitted to be destroyed by agitators.

If the agitators and demagogues really want to help the Negro people, let them stop their agitating against other racial groups and get the Negroes to improve their living habits, their sanitation, clean up their homes and backyards, reduce their habitual sex relations wherein excessive babies are born in families where there is insufficient financial arrangements provided for them, and sponsor a program to expose the exploitation of teachers in our elementary and secondary schools.

So long as there are these conditions, the Negro agitators cannot, in good conscience, agitate against any other matter whatsoever. The Negro agitators ignore entirely the basic need of the Negro people. I find thousands of young men right here in Georgia too lazy to work; they spend their time in activities that no man with ambition would spend as much as one minute. Thousands of young women have babies by different fathers, and bring them into the world for others to support. Until such time as this type of activity ceases, the integration leaders have sufficient work to do within their own race without going out agitating against another race. What the Negro needs is a different type of leadership than those now heading up such organizations as the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Congress of Racial Equality, the Student Non Violent Coordinating Committee, the National Urban League, and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

A FEW THOUGHTS ON THE NEWARK-PLAINFIELD RIOTS

Were the rifles really stolen in Plainfield, N.J.? Or was the whole move a trial balloon to prepare the stage for massive unconstitutional searches and seizures in private homes, particularly those of rightwingers?

If they were trying to stop a riot, why was it Newark Police were limited to four shotgun shells apiece?

Were the Newark riots stage-managed to create an atmosphere that would facilitate N.J. Attorney General Sill's designs for greater Gun Control?

Were the Negroes permitted to burn the stores of their Jewish friends because the latter knew an emergency windfall would be forthcoming from LBJ and they would obtain full indemnity and then some?

God Helps Them That Help Themselves

Mrs. Irene Palmer of DeQuincy, La., wrote the following inspiring letter to the Beaumont (Tex.) Enterprise.

These marches, demonstrations, riotings, lootings, police slayings and the such make me literally sick, especially the reasons our Government officials are trying to cram down our throats as causes of these law-breaking episodes.

Sir, I know what hard work, hardship, pain and suffering is. I had polio at age 5 months which left my left leg one and one-half inches shorter than my right and about one third the size.

My father died at 6 p.m. Sunday in 1935, was buried Monday on my seventeenth birthday. My brother died at 5 a.m. Tuesday and was buried Wednesday, leaving me with two small sisters and my mother to support.

At 17 I was not a drop-out in school. With no education — not enough, anyway — no experience and with only one good leg, I quit school and went to work to support a family. I didn't have a teen-age life because my working hours were always from 10 to 20 hours a day. In 1948, I got my right hand — my working hand; I'm right-handed — in an electric ice shaver and mangled it. It was doubtful whether I'd ever be able to use it again, but after much pain and suffering I learned to use what I had left of a hand. This left me with one good leg and one good hand, but I didn't give up.

I would like for Earl Warren, President Johnson, H. H. Humphrey, Martin Luther King, and all the hell-raising juveniles to come to my home and follow me just one day. I can guarantee that they wouldn't have enough pep left to go on a demonstration, marching or rock-throwing party.

My day begins about 4 a.m. and ends about 8 or 9 p.m., when my health permits. I do my own housework, cooking, washing, ironing, sewing, raising flowers and a garden. In fact, for the past three weeks I have been standing in a hot kitchen, over a hot stove, canning my vegetables. Have an air conditioner? Are you kidding? Neither do I run uptown when I get hot and turn on the water hydrants, nor start rioting and looting stores. Do you see any civil-rights workers doing this kind of work, trying to add to their income? If you do, show me.

I have two wonderful children who were reared most of their lives in hot, crowded apartments. They know what it is to do without a lot of the better things of life. If we could have afforded just one vacation for them, it would have been a luxury yet neither are rioters, rock-throwers, nor law-breakers.

Sir, can our President, Vice President, any civil-rights worker, agitator, or whomever they may be, stand up and look us handicaps, whose very life itself has been a struggle for most of us, in the eye and try to cram down our throats an idea as idiotic as hot weather, crowded living quarters, low income, hard working conditions and all the other excuses they try to pass on to the people as being reasons for these riots we are having? I for one cannot nor will I swallow such tommyrot.

You may see us handicaps become furious when we see a gang of able-bodied men and women, whether they are black, white, purple or spotted, running up and down our nation saying I want this, gimme that, without lifting a finger to earn it, but you will never see us in a marching demonstration line wanting something for nothing. We're too proud for that.

I believe a good lesson could be learned from the handicaps. First, faith; then courage, patience, love, kindness, long suffering, pride, competence and all the things that make life worthwhile.

Sir, I didn't intend to write a newspaper when I started, but I have watched so much of these disgraceful crime waves, which are so useless, on television, and read so much about it in the papers, until I just had to say my piece.

OPEN LETTER TO DIXIE

Dear Dixie:

Can you possibly find it in your heart to accept our sincere apology? When there was race rioting in Little Rock, Arkansas, we were so convinced that the cause was callousness. Our public officials and our press here in Chicago insisted that the only two reasons for Negro restiveness were your segregated schools and your stubborn Governor. We in Chicago with integrated schools and a very liberal Governor are now writhing in the agony of race rioting and we seek to set our house in order, hoping your headlines will be kinder to us than ours were to you. And when a Mississippi Negro boy was found drowned, we in Chicago called this the inevitable result of a white supremacy tradition. Now a Negro girl, fourteen and pregnant, has been shot to death on the front porch of her own home in Chicago and we're confused and ashamed and frightened. What are we doing wrong that has made eight square miles of our city a battleground? Help us if you can find it in your own hurt heart to help. And Alabama, when your State Police were photographed subduing rioters with nightsticks, Chicago's bold-faced front pages condemned you for indefensible brutality and now . . . Illinois' National Guard has resorted to armored cars, and cracking skulls, and shooting to kill. Your Governor had alleged that Communists were fomenting this strife and we scoffed; now thirteen Negroes on Chicago's West Side have been charged with plotting treason! We are sweeping, admittedly, Communist literature from our littered streets—forgive us, for not knowing what we were talking about. And Georgia, when you were photographed in the act of turning back crowds of marching children we could not control ourselves . . . "The very idea," the Chicago press editorialized, "that youngsters should be considered a menace sufficient to justify the use of tear gas!" Now in our own asphalt jungle we have seen Negro youngsters of 9, 10, 11, advance on police with drawn guns or broken bottles, screaming "Kill Whitey" and we used gas, and clubs, and dogs, and guns, and, God, forgive us, what else could we do? Can you, Georgia—can you forgive us too? We tried the patience we had preached, honest we did, we tried so desperately that seven policemen were shot the other night — two of them through the back, so in the end we resorted to methods more brutal than yours. But don't you see? We had to, and our Mayor listened to the Negro's leaders as he so often admonished you to do. He had listened, he had made compromises and concessions, he had offered sacrificial police officials and school officials, but they keep coming from so many directions with so many demands and then, demanding to keep the fire hydrants gushing for their playing children during the city's most critical drought. Oh, dear Dixie, perhaps we had not yet learned fully to appreciate what you had been trying to do — to effect evolution without revolution, but for whatever belated comfort it may be, from our glass house we will not be throwing any more stones at you . . . not for a while.

though, the Jewish idea of dominating Russia by communism failed because it was an unsound idea from the beginning. The pack of tinhorn intellectuals who promoted Jew-Marxism in Russia were such hopeless incompetents and romantics that they were easily destroyed by cynical rascals like Stalin. There is nothing left of Marxism in Russia today except the Marxist labels. We freely predict that Russia will, within three to seven years, drop even those labels. Russia is simply a chauvinistic Asian despotism. The idea of Russia as a "Socialistic Experiment" is an idea promoted by the Jewish press. In Russia there are no protest singers, no people who march and demonstrate against national policy; there are no "Marxists" who undermine patriotism and destroy national unity.

Today the Jews are ruling the United States but not Russia. Under Jewish rule, we are fast being driven toward ruin and oblivion. We are not being destroyed by a "conspiracy" which arises from the ranks of the poor or the working class; we are being destroyed by a corrupt and decadent ruling class, comprised of Jews and "Judaized Gentiles." We in America are being ruled by corrupt fools and scoundrels; the Russians are being ruled by sharp-witted and ruthless despots. The wide world is rapidly falling under the domination of fear and hatred. The lying Yid publishers who claim to be the makers of American opinion today call to mind the Prophet Jeremiah howling through the streets of Jerusalem:

"They will deceive every one his neighbor, and will not speak the truth; they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. . . ."

The consequences of this kind of thing have not changed much since Jeremiah's day. The great basic realities remain the same through all the ages. We shall soon see if Mr. Dayan, the romantic man with the glamorous black eyepatch, can prevent the consequences pre-

THE NEW UNHAPPY LORDS

By A. K. CHESTERTON

An exposure of power politics which reveals recent secret history and pinpoints the conspiracy pushing mankind toward a ONE WORLD DICTATORSHIP.

Covering six decades of history, some of the world's most prominent men are judged strictly by their actions during these events. Without fear or favor, Chesterton puts his finger on feet of clay, men in power who weakly yield to the conspiracy, betraying Christianity, their nation and race.

Unhappy Lords is a treasure of facts which patriots of all nations can use in the struggle against the Satanic power of the conspiracy.

dicted by Jeremiah: "I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant . . ." That is what Jeremiah promised the erring Israelites for their sins two thousand years ago; it is just about what Mr. Kosygin is promising the Arabs today.
